

Special Amenity Tours

What's behind that door?

Behind the Scenes Tour: 10 a.m.

Have you ever wondered what's behind all those closed doors inside the Garfield home? Now's your chance to find out! See rooms like the servant's quarters and the third floor, and peek into the windmill, horse barn, and carriage house. Learn about other original buildings on the site during the Garfield family's time. This tour is the first Saturday of every month.

Behind the Ropes Tour: 10 a.m.

Have you ever seen an object in the Garfield home that you wanted to see close up or you'd love to touch? If so, this is the tour for you! Participants are able to go behind the ropes to get an up-close and personal look at selected pieces of the Garfield collection, and handle a few as well. This tour is the second Saturday of every month.

You'll never hear "don't touch!" on the Behind the Ropes tour!

Garfield and the 1880 Presidential Campaign Tour- 10 a.m.

Did you know that James A. Garfield ran his presidential campaign from his front porch? Visitors can learn more about the first front porch campaign that attracted visitors from near and far to hear James A. Garfield. Go behind the glass of the campaign office that played a part on election night in Mentor. This tour is the fourth Saturday of every month (May-October).

Garfield Neighborhood Walking Tour- 10 a.m.

Have you ever wondered "was this building here in 1880?" Experience through "then and now" pictures, a trip back in time to James Garfield's neighborhood. The tour takes you several blocks immediately east and west of our property. This tour is the third Saturday of every month (May-October).
